

Workshop Session 1, choose one option:

Helping Children Know And Encounter God	"Why Are We Here?"	Can The Cross Inspire Transformational Leadership?
Whether we're leading children on Sundays, at camps, Rally, or other programmes, our goal is to help them explore faith in a way that is both meaningful and transformative. Children need more than just knowledge about God—they need real encounters with Him. This workshop will explore how to foster wonder, questions, and discovery, helping children grasp the depth of God's love, grace, and power and the significance of Jesus' sacrifice in a real and lasting way. Facilitated by Julie McKinnon, CCCNZ Children and Family Ministries	Well, it depends on who you ask. Is it to marry, have children, and continue the human race? To work? To seek pleasure? According to Ecclesiastes, we live in a world filled with vanity, futility, and frustration. So... what are we saved for? What are we saved to? Is it enough to simply live a good life? And what does a 'good life' even mean? We invite you to join the conversation as we explore these questions together and seek a meaningful response—one that lasts forever. Facilitated by Wendy and John Buchanan, GC3	This workshop explores how Scripture encourages us to allow the Cross to shape our leadership with love, integrity and accountability. Are our methods enhancing our eldership oversight or just offering superficial transparency? Do our church policies reflect the grace and justice of the cross, or do they expose hypocrisy? As Christian leaders, how do we balance our commitment to God's Word with modern challenges, including government policies that may conflict with our faith? Facilitated by Jan De Lange, CCCNZ National Advisor

Workshop Session 2, choose one option:

How Can Youth And Young Adults Experience The Power Of The Gospel?	"Why Are We Here?"	Kids Need To Sniff!
Do we focus too much on helping our youth and young adults understand the gospel academically, rather than experiencing it? If so, how do we change this without diminishing their need to fully comprehend Christ's saving and transforming work? Furthermore, what does it mean for youth and young adults to experience the power of the Cross? Facilitated by Craig Barrow, CCCNZ Youth and Young Adults	Well, it depends on who you ask. Is it to marry, have children, and continue the human race? To work? To seek pleasure? According to Ecclesiastes, we live in a world filled with vanity, futility, and frustration. So... what are we saved for? What are we saved to? Is it enough to simply live a good life? And what does a 'good life' even mean? We invite you to join the conversation as we explore these questions together and seek a meaningful response—one that lasts forever. Facilitated by Wendy and John Buchanan, GC3 This workshop is a repeat of the session one workshop (please don't register for both).	In the light of evangelism we will have people that think the message of Jesus is a sweet perfume, yet others will think it stinks! Either way we need to sincerely spread the knowledge of Jesus. Come take a glimpse into some of the 40 rallies around New Zealand and what NZ Rally has to offer in the way of Preparing Kids for Life! Life with Jesus and life for others. Facilitated by Tony Foster, NZ Rally